About Natalia Eileen:

As Founder and CEO of Seen@Work (seenatwork.com), a diversity, equity, and inclusion (DEI) consulting firm, Natalia Eileen leverages the team she manages to support her clients with all their DEI needs. She develops and facilitates workshops, coaches senior leaders, and builds DEI initiatives related to employee resource groups, executive scorecards, inclusion councils, taskforces, diversity reporting, metrics planning, and more.

Prior to founding Seen@Work, Natalia worked as a diversity and inclusion strategist and human capital consultant for almost ten years through organizations including Deloitte, Meta, and Teach For America. Natalia graduated from University of Pennsylvania's The Wharton School with an MBA in Organizational Effectiveness with an emphasis in Inclusion in the Workplace and from New York University with a BA in History, which included courses in critical race theory and oppressive political structures.

Testimonials:

"Seen@Work was organized, reliable, and stayed on timeline. Positive experiences all around!"
— Consulting & Coaching Client

"Absolutely wonderful! – Usually, these workshops feel long and at times mind numbing, but myself and the team felt engaged for the entire 90"
– Live Workshop Attendee

"I participated in the Unconscious Bias and Inclusive Leadership workshops -I appreciated how Natalia led us through the workshops allowing me to become aware about my unconscious biases."
